The estate encompasses 6.5+ acres, juts into the crystal blue Atlantic Ocean and provides unobstructed water views throughout the estate, especially from the third-floor crow's nest. Once beyond the gated entry, the seclusion and privacy allow one to escape the stress of everyday life. The 2.5+ acre deep-water harbor, is a boater's dream, boasting 500' of dockage and two boat lifts. As one approaches the residence, and passes through the breezeway, the great lawn, 150' of sandy beach and private peninsula are intoxicating and draw one to the ocean-front without deliberation. The white interiors with soaring cathedral ceilings are complemented by hardwood floors and dark trim on the multitude of windows. The walls are ideal for the display of large-scale art. The meandering gardens include an orchid house, secret garden, miniature Stonehenge Garden and numerous private locations to read, reflect or enjoy a private conversation.
