RARE NEO-GOTHIC CASTLE

Rare Neo-Gothic château

P&P EXCLUSIVE A rare opportunity to acquire a unique neo-Gothic château nestling in the Hautes-Pyrénées, entirely restored to the highest standards.

Location: In the heart of the golden triangle of the Hautes-Pyrénées, Gers and Haute Garonne, the château has more than a hectare of parklands in absolute peace and quiet, and you can also rent adjoining land for horses.

History: Built in 1257 as a hunting lodge, the château has survived the centuries and was inhabited for 500 years by the Haget family. Over the centuries, the buildings have been renovated and extended. In the mid-19th century, the château underwent a major renovation and extension that gave it its neo-Gothic features.

The property: this chateau has been completely restored to the highest standards and comprises 10 very spacious and bright bedrooms. The property offers 750m² of comfort, a lounge, a large lounge, a games room, an office, an artist's studio, a swimming pool and a relaxation area.

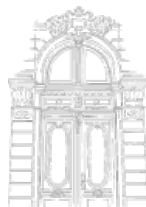

Oak parquet flooring, floor bars, exquisite marble fireplaces, mullioned windows, slate roof.

The castle feels like a home, as the owners have managed to provide comfort and modernity.

Our opinion: This rare neo-Gothic castle is ideal for resting and welcoming family and friends in absolute comfort.
